Customer Reviews

I think this is the best gift you puerder give that little person who does not want itself, he believes is lower than others and it is not worth, the book is excellent teaches you to love yourself to trust and see that your worth is important that you learn that you are the key to your destiny and no one will be above you, at heart it's a gift if you know someone who needs Give it will help, I got this book in a promotion with discounted price

This book made me understand a lot of researches to improve my self esteem, is not difficult, the only thing you have to do, is take this book and follow its recommendations. Some times is good to take a minute and realize who you are, so with this book I allowed myself to do it and learn about the psychological behavior and the effects about my life. I bought it with a discount in exchange for my honest opinion in a review

People need motivation.As such, considerable things are achievedwhen we have the requisite drive.This is one of the best self-help books I've read. The authors are extremely knowledgeable, the book is very well written and unusually well organized, and the exercises are based on solid, evidence-based cognitive therapy principles and techniques. All psychotherapists should be aware of this book and consider recommending it to their clients with self-esteem problems.Disclosure: I bought this ebook in a promotion with a discount in exchange for giving an unbiased opinion about it

First, thanks for the promotion, got a discount on the price to pay for my personal opinion. I think sometimes the book becomes very repetitive, perhaps that's the idea when it comes to these problems (anxiety, self-esteem, etc) but the reading becomes very heavy, it's just my opinion, but that doesn't mean that the issue is not interesting.

I love when I find this kind of book, I got it in a special promotion. I feel that every page and every word is giving me one more tool to keep a high self-esteem and keep the control of my life by my own hands without depending or being afraid of someone else and not even the world around me. This is a reading every person must do to stop doubting and pushing back themselves in their own projects or life decisions.
